

Project title: Climate Governance Integrity Programme (CGIP)
Chapter name: Transparency International Nepal
Project duration: October 2023 - December 2025
Please mark an 'x' for the months the activities are envisaged.	x
Please use this colour when the activity is envisaged to be completed.

Outputs/activities	Q1	Q2	Q3	Q4
1. Climate Policy
Change 1.1: The MoE establishes clear guidelines and protocols for transparent procurement processes within the climate governance sector to mitigate corruption risks.
1.1.1 Conduct research on undue influence related to climate change in the infrastructure sector updated with policy briefs	x	x	x
1.1.2 Build capacity of government and stakeholders on climate change accountability issues		x		x
Change 1.2: The MOE strengthens whistleblower protection mechanisms to encourage individuals to report corrupt activities within the climate governance sector without fear of reprisal
1.2.1 Raise awareness to 12,000 individuals through traditional and new media for climate integrity	x	x	x	x
1.2.2 Educate youth to expand knowledge on climate change, climate finance, conflict of interest in climate change, climate crimes, climate governance and integrity	x	x	x	x
Change 1.3 The MOFE engages civil society organizations and the public in decision-making processes related to climate policies to promote transparency and gather diverse perspectives
1.3.1 Conduct updated research and advocacy on climate funding / environment integrity /climate justice etc.	x	x	x
Change 1.4 Local governments are proactive in formulating necessary laws and policies for better governance of climate change
1.4.1 Mapping climate project actions and outputs at the national and local level	x	x	x
Change 1.5 Intergovernmental institutions, governments, political parties, and businesses are responsible toward the general public by sharing fundamental information of public interest and making their work more transparent and inclusive
1.5.1 Promote integrity in government and private funding on climate governance agenda	x		x
2. Climate action
Change 2.1: Individuals, communities, and social organizations have started to speak out on climate change and its evil consequences
2.1.1 Engage community for watch on clean energy, green spaces, climate disaster preparedness etc.	x	x	x	x
2.1.2 Mobile ALAC for redressing environment and climate complaints of indigenous people, victims of environmental corruption, women, and other vulnerable communities	x	x	x	x
Change 2.2: Individuals, communities, civil society organizations, and social movements become more vigilant against corruption in climate change
2.2.1 Promote social accountability tools at local government level for environment protection, land use etc.	x	x	x	x
3. Climate Justice
Change 3.1: There is an increased reach of messages and updates on climate change and corruption to
3.1.1 Reports/Stories on climate loss and damage, disaster preparedness etc.	x	x	x	x
3.1.2 National and sub-national / international experience sharing		x	x	x